Dear Community,

As the person in charge of decision-making at the establishment, I want to address a question repeatedly raised by our stakeholders: Why have we chosen a measured and deliberate path to scale rather than pursuing an agile approach? Please allow me to shed light on this decision.

Our mission at the collegiate is to provide comprehensive education to all deserving individuals, while upholding unwavering standards of integrity and ethics. We have purposefully adopted a cautious and intentional approach to scaling our operations, driven by several factors.

The Collegiate's utmost priority lies in delivering education of exceptional quality. By proceeding prudently and thoughtfully, we can ensure that each phase of expansion is meticulously planned, executed, and assessed, maintaining the excellence we strive to achieve.

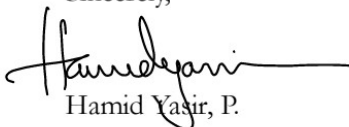

To remain resolute in safeguarding our core values, we unequivocally reject unsolicited contributions, dubious funds, or funds encumbered by conditions that may compromise our principles. Pursuing a gradual path to scale safeguards the integrity of our establishment, ensuring that we deliver education rooted in ethical foundations.

No matter how cliché it may sound by now, sustainability is of paramount importance to us. Incremental growth enables us to effectively manage resources, optimize their utilization, and cultivate a resilient infrastructure that supports our ambitious project without compromising quality or stability.

A gradual approach empowers us to prioritize our students. We create an environment that fosters their growth and development, offering personalized attention and fostering a strong sense of community. This bespoke approach may prove challenging to achieve through a rapid, large-scale model.

Union Collegiate's measured path to scale aligns steadfastly with our commitment to excellence, values, sustainability, and student-centric education. We sincerely appreciate your unwavering support and dedication as we work collaboratively to fulfill our promises.

Sincerely,

Hamid Yasir, P.
